Fairfield-Maxwell Ltd. Appoints Charles (Chuck) Allen as Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors

New York, N.Y., 15 October 2020 – New York, N.Y. – Fairfield-Maxwell is pleased to announce the appointment of Charles (Chuck) Allen as Vice Chairman of the company's Board of Directors. Mr. Allen has served on Fairfield's Board of Directors since 2017. Allen has 45 years of experience in public accounting including serving as Crowe's Chief Executive Officer for eight years from 2007 to 2015. Starting with the firm in 1975 in South Bend, Indiana when the firm was comprised of approximately 80 people, he retired from the partnership in 2016 after serving as Vice Chairman in his final year. Since 2015 he has served in the role of Co-Chairman of Crowe Global. Mr. Allen is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Financial Accounting Foundation and was recognized for five straight years by the National Association of Corporate Directors as one of the 100 most influential people in corporate governance.

"Chuck Allen has contributed significantly to Fairfield's success over the past several years, leading our Audit and Risk Committee and advising the Board and management on strategic planning, corporate transactions, and governance issues", says Byron Sugahara, Fairfield-Maxwell's Chairman. "As we build and grow our company, we will continue to benefit from Chuck's leadership, advice, and business acumen."

"Fairfield-Maxwell's board, management team, and employees are dedicated, talented professionals who are committed to building upon our Founder's vision," said Chuck Allen. "I am honored by the appointment and excited to take on this broader role, working more closely with Chairman Sugahara to help the company continue to be successful and grow."
