

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fairfield-Maxwell Ltd. Names Susan Bratton to Board of Directors

New York, N.Y., 9 January 2019 – Fairfield-Maxwell is pleased to announce the addition of Susan Bratton to the company's Board of Directors. Ms. Bratton is a former Executive Team Member of Greatbatch, Inc. (Integer Holdings; NYSE: ITGR), where she spent a career holding a range of leadership positions including President of Electrochem Solutions, Inc. a technology leading manufacturer of power solutions for the medical, energy, environmental, and military markets. During her tenure at Greatbatch, Susan served in successive positions in procurement, quality, manufacturing, and general management. Ms. Bratton also served as a member of the Board of Directors for Insyte Consulting, a management firm that helps manufacturing and technology companies drive innovation, growth and profitability.

"Sue Bratton brings over 30 years of leadership, management, and merger and acquisition experience to Fairfield," says Byron Sugahara, Fairfield-Maxwell's Chairman. "As we continue to build and grow our company, we will greatly benefit from Susan's strategic advice and business experience."

"I am very excited to join the Fairfield-Maxwell Board of Directors and work with the Board and Management to help the company continue to succeed and grow," said Susan Bratton. "It is a privilege to join the Sugahara Family's long and proud legacy."

For more information, contact Jessica Vazquez 212.297.9030, or visit www.fairfield.com.

About Fairfield-Maxwell Ltd.

Privately held Fairfield-Maxwell; recently celebrated its 60th year in business as a global leader in chemical tanker shipping, seismic nodal technology for the energy sector, and other businesses. Founded by Kay Sugahara in 1957, the company has been continuously owned by his descendants and is headquartered in New York City.

###